Presentation

2003

Meeting Purpose

- ◆ More than two years since last sessions
- ◆ Review the policy/Discuss enhancements to the policy
- ◆ Address problems

Review Goals of Policy

- ◆ Make discipline system less confrontational
- ◆ Foster trust & cooperation
- ◆ Focus on education & training, not punishment
- ◆ Make railroad safer & improve customer service

Policy Review

- ◆ Policy not agreement
- ◆ Employees still have CBA rights (including right to investigation)
- ◆ Rule G, Drug & Alcohol Policy, Absenteeism not covered

It is Vital that Local Supervision Involve Local Chairmen and.....

...That Local Chairmen
Fully Participate

The Policy Is Only as Good as Relationships at the Local Level

The Goals Have Not Changed But The Procedures Have Been Modified.

Formal vs. Informal Handling

- ◆ If handled informally pre-START still should be handled that way
- ◆ Not trying to build record
- ◆ We are trying to focus attention on improving the performance of repeat offenders
- ◆ Perception that all rule violations are handled formally

START Policy Amendment

- ◆ The modifications do not affect the use of:
 - ◆ informal handling
 - ◆ the categorizing of offense
 - ◆ the right of an employee to request a formal hearing.

START Policy Amendment

There will be a one-year rolling period for minor offenses.

START Policy Amendment

There will be a two-year rolling period for serious
offenses.

START Policy Amendment

Minor offenses occurring within the one-year period and serious offenses occurring within the two-year period prior to this policy amendment will be counted in determining the appropriate level of the offense.

START Policy Amendment

Offenses occurring outside these time periods will not be counted in determining the appropriate level.

Phase I: Employee Development (12 months)

The first four minor offenses that occur within the rolling one-year period will be handled with counseling.

Phase I: Employee Development (12 months)

- ◆ The counseling session will:
 - ◆ be held away from the incident site
 - ◆ involve training and education regarding the rule compliance issue(s) involved in the violation.
 - ◆ be confirmed in writing to the employee.

Phase I: Employee Development (12 months)

- ◆ This will provide the supervisor an opportunity to:
 - ◆ foster leadership skills
 - ◆ build and improve the relationship with the employee.
- ◆ The focus should be positive and educational, not punitive or accusatory.

Phase I: Employee Development (12 months)

- ◆ If an employee commits four minor offenses within a rolling one-year period:
 - ◆ A conference will be held with the employee, the local chairman, and the supervisor to discuss his/her performance.
 - ◆ The employee will also be required (without pay) to attend a formal training session.

START Policy Amendment

The fifth minor offense within a one-year period is considered a serious offense.

Phase I: Employee Development (12 months)

If the employee does not commit a minor or serious offense during a subsequent two-year period, the employee will revert to having minor offenses handled with counseling.

Phase I: Employee Development (12 months)

- ◆ If an employee commits the same minor offense twice within a rolling one-year period:
 - ◆ A conference will be held with the employee, the local chairman, and the supervisor to discuss his/her performance.
 - ◆ The employee will also be required (without pay) to attend a formal training session.

Phase I: Employee Development (12 months)

A third repetitive minor offense within a rolling one-year period will be considered a serious offense.

Phase II: Serious Violations (24 months)

Serious offenses will continue to be handled with formal discipline unless the supervisor in consultation with the local chairman deems alternative handling to be appropriate.

Phase I: Employee Development (12 months)

- Q. What Constitutes a Repetitive Violation?
- A. Committing the same offense more than once within a year

Phase II: Serious Violations (24 months)

- ◆ In the event that formal discipline is assessed, the progression has not been changed and is as follows:
 - ◆ 1st serious MAXIMUM 30 days deferred
 - ◆ 2nd serious MAXIMUM 30 days actual
 - ◆ 3rd serious MAXIMUM dismissal

Phase II: Serious Violations (24 months)

Employees will be paid for one-half of the time they are engaged in activities such as training and education required by alternative handling for serious offenses.

START Policy Amendment

The Policy Amendments will be effective immediately after this meeting.

Employees may only be removed from service for major offenses

3 Day Time Period

- ◆ 3 days is to schedule not hold conference
- ◆ Involve local chairman
- ◆ Effect on time limits

START Non-repetitive Offenses

Example:

Date of Incident:

- | | |
|-------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. minor offense: | 01/01/03 (1 st minor) |
| 2. minor offense: | 03/01/03 (2 nd minor) |
| 3. minor offense: | 05/01/03 (3 rd minor) |
| 4. minor offense: | 09/01/03 (4 th minor) |
| 5. minor offense: | 02/01/04 (4 th minor)* |

* because 01/01/03 minor offense is not counted after 01/01/04.

START Non-repetitive Offenses

Example:

Date of Incident:

- | | |
|-------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. minor offense: | 01/01/03 (1 st minor) |
| 2. minor offense: | 03/01/03 (2 nd minor) |
| 3. minor offense: | 05/01/03 (3 rd minor) |
| 4. minor offense: | 07/01/03 (4 th minor) |
| 5. minor offense: | 09/01/03 (1 st serious)* |

* Triggers 2 year period for counting this offense. Minor offenses during this period are considered serious offenses.

START Non-repetitive Offenses

Example:

Date of Incident:

- | | |
|---------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. serious offense: | 01/01/03 (1 st serious) |
| 2. minor offense: | 06/01/03 (1 st minor) |
| 3. serious offense: | 01/01/04 (2 nd serious) |
| 4. minor offense: | 06/01/04 (2 nd minor) |
| 5. serious offense: | 02/01/05 (2 nd serious)* |

* because 01/01/03 serious offense is not counted after 01/01/05.

START Repetitive Offenses

Example:

Date of Incident:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---|
| 1. minor offense:
• GR-13(a) | 01/01/03 (1 st minor) |
| 2. minor offense:
• GR-13(a) | 05/01/03 (2 nd repetitive minor) |
| 3. minor offense:
• GR-13(j) | 07/01/03 (3 rd minor)* |
| 4. minor offense:
• GR-13(a) | 09/01/03 (1 st serious) |
| 5. Minor offense:
• GR-14 | 10/01/04 (2 nd serious) |

* Note: The GR-13(j) offense was not a repetitive offense. The 3rd GR-13(a) offense triggered the 2 year counting period.
